DISCLOSURES

IMPORTANT DISCLOSURES FOR COMMERCIAL CREDIT APPLICANTS Representations by the applicant(s) and the information provided in this application and any accompanying statements, schedules, tax returns or other materials, may be relied upon by the Lender in connection with its consideration of this application and its credit decision. Intentional misrepresentations or omissions in the information provided to the Lender may result in criminal prosecution under federal or State law.

The Lender is authorized to undertake, to the extent considered necessary, any reasonable investigation or verification of the information provided by the applicant(s) and to obtain reports covering the credit history and creditworthiness of any organization or individual named as an applicant, co-applicant, co-borrower, or guarantor.

RIGHT TO NOTICE OF CREDIT DENIAL REASONS
Commercial credit applicants have credit denial notice rights provided under the Equal Credit Opportunity Act. If a business credit request is denied, the applicant has the right to receive a written statement detailing specific reasons for credit denial. To obtain a written explanation of denial reasons, an applicant should contact the Lender, in writing, at the address below, within sixty days of the date notice of the credit decision is provided. The Lender will provide a written statement of denial reasons within thirty days of receiving such a request.

EQUAL CREDIT OPPORTUNITY ACT NOTICE
The federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, age (providing the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract), because all or part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program, or because the applicant has, in good faith, exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. The federal agency that administers compliance with this law concerning this creditor is:
